

REBECCA LYNN ELLIOTT

301-705-9775 • becky.elliott@gmail.com • <http://www.beckyelliott.com>

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Creative web developer with over 10 years of experience in designing, developing and supporting web applications in ASP, ASP.NET, and ColdFusion.

SECURITY CLEARANCE

Active DOD Secret Clearance (October 2003)

EDUCATION

2006

University of Maryland University College (Adelphi, Maryland)

Earned BS in Information Systems Management, Minor in Journalism

EXPERIENCE

2004 – Present

L-3 Communications

2008 -

Web Developer (Arlington, VA)

- Creating and updating both static and dynamic content for Army G-1 Internet and Intranet web sites using ASP and SQL Server.
- Serving as backup administrator for Windows 2003 web server and SQL 2000 database server.

2006 - 2008

Software Engineer (Washington, DC)

- Troubleshoot and recommended solutions for system, browser and user issues for InfoWeb, a portal serving over 10,000 users.
- Assisted with creating JavaScript and CSS improvements to Infoweb.

2004 – 2006

Systems Analyst (Lexington Park, Maryland)

- Created and updated both static and dynamic content using ColdFusion MX, JavaScript and SQL Server for use on Intranet;
- Created Project Management for use on intranet by senior management.

2001 - 2004

Associate Software Engineer for Alion Science and Technology (Rockville, Maryland)

- Promoted to Associate Software Engineer in 2002, formerly Assistant Software Engineer.
- Assisted with documentation and user interface design on a project at the United States Secret Service.
- Acted as webmaster for three government websites. Each site averaged over 100,000 hits per month.
- Created and updated both static and dynamic content on at least 5 government websites using HTML, ASP, and ASP.net.
- Extensive experience in creating Section 508 compliant or accessible pages. Evaluated at least six government websites for Section 508 compliance. Also, converted over 500 pages of PDFs to accessible HTML.
- Developed an image bank repository project with ASP.net and SQL Server 2000 for the National Institutes of Health.

2000 - 2001

Web Developer for American Urological Association (Baltimore, Maryland)

- Promoted to Web Developer in 2000, formerly Web Assistant.

- Created and updated both static and dynamic content on four websites (www.auanet.org, www.drylife.org, www.uromart.com, and intranet) using HTML, ASP, and ColdFusion. Auanet.org averaged over 1,000,000 hits per month.
- Assumed higher leadership role as Acting Web Manager for 4 months.
- Created and maintained four Listserv mailing lists. Each list had at least 1,000 subscribers.
- Designed at least 6 banner ads for the front page of auanet.org.
- Designed content, flow, and function of Intranet. Intranet usage quadrupled. Organized the Intranet Committee. Earned Cash Bonus for Intranet work.
- Helped manage and maintain functionality of four in-house and external web servers. Platforms included IIS 4.0, Apache, and Netscape Enterprise Manager.
- Generated Monthly WebTrends Reports for auanet.org

1999 - 2000

Information Specialist for American Foundation for Urologic Disease (Baltimore, Maryland)

- Created and updated static content, and graphics on four websites.
- Implemented simple, but secure Online Donation System, using SSL, JavaScript, and HTML.
- Provided general technical assistance to staff. Dramatically reduced the need for outside IT consultants.
- Earned highest merit raise among staff in 1999.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

- Developing ASP.NET Web Applications , Learning Tree, 03/07
- Introduction to XML, HTML Writers Guild, 03/01
- Introduction to Flash, HTML Writers Guild, 03/01
- Web Specialist Training, University of Maryland Baltimore County (UMBC),
- Red Hat Linux System Administration, Red Hat Linux, 08/00
- Fast Track to ColdFusion, 03/00

SOFTWARE

Adobe Acrobat, Adobe Dreamweaver, Adobe Fireworks, Microsoft SQL Server, Microsoft Access, Adobe Photoshop.